Make Time to Quilt Every Day!

Festival 2017 is in the books (and in our memories). It was great and hope everyone had a great time. Did you notice our new banner hanging at Festival on our Raffle Quilt? Nice job, Janet Sabol.

We had our wrap-up meeting on April 8, to discuss the evaluations and what we can do to improve it for next year. It was a blast and now my job is done and has been passed onto our Chair for 2018, Bev Cushing. Please give her all your support. Next year we celebrate our 25th annual Festival. Wow, the time has gone fast.

Signups for our retreat in August will start at the May meeting on a first come, first serve basis. Signup and pay your deposit to reserve your spot.

Signups will also be taken for our Fall Education weekend on October 13 & 14 featuring Penny Haren. Janet Sabol, Susan Melgaard, and Marie Watts have volunteered to head this great event. You won't want to miss this. She will teach you amazing things about how to use all of the rulers you have purchased in the past (and in the future). I know I need a refresher course on my collection.

Please remember that when it is your try to serve lunch, if you are unable to come to the meeting that night that you can have someone bring it for you or find someone to bring some goodies. You can also let Sue Brown or Pam Abrahamson know so they can get more baked goodies ready in time for the meeting.

This Saturday, April 29 in the basement of Vincent United Methodist church is the day to come help cut, sew, and get scraps stuffed into the pet beds for community service. See you there! Thank you all so much for your hard work!

Thought for the Day: ONLY THOSE WHO WILL RISK GOING TOO FAR CAN POSSIBLY FIND OUT HOW FAR ONE CAN GO. (T.S. Eliot)

Treasurer's Report: Jackie Case gave the Treasurer's report.

BOM/Newsletter: – Deadline will be April 23rd so that Jen can send out the newsletter.

Community Service: Carol Kraft – There will be a Saturday sew on April 29th to assemble pet beds, a light lunch will be served.

Fall Opportunity: Janet Sabol – Penny Haren will be teaching Oct 13 & 14 – Flyers were put in the festival folders, and they were at the last Guild meeting. The teacher will provide the fabric for Friday's 1st and 2nd classes. She will also have rulers to test before you must buy them, there will be a $10 charge paid to the teacher for kits. There will be 20 slots for each class, it will be given on a first come first serve basis.

Festival: Bev – The wrap up meeting was held at The Grand, Bev is still looking for a chair for teachers. Other than that, all the other portion have been filled.

Historian/pet beds: Britni Kraft – Britni brought in some new beds to fill for the Saturday sew on April 29th.

Hospitality: Pam Abrahamson – Pam reported that May hospitality was filled, and she wanted to make sure that everyone knew that when you sign up and for some reason you can't make it please call one of them so that they can bring food in your place.

Library: Debby Brothers – There was nothing new to report that this time.

Membership: Lisa Krebsbach – Lisa received a new member registration form in the mail from someone she had talked to at Festival.

Publicity: Janet Clark – Alan Banks was very interested in all of the community service that we do, there was a suggestion made that we invite him to one of our Saturday sew days.

Raffle Quilt 2018: Janet Sabol & Britni Kraft – Janet and Britni visited Prairie Rose Quilt shop to get the material for the quilt, they had 5 kits put together so that we can start to sew it together.

Saturday Sewing: Library, April 22 and Church Basement, April 29

Pay it Forward: (Bev) Pam Abrahamson & Shelley Opland (Feb.) and Bev & Sue Brown (May).

Website: – Sharon was not present

EDUCATION & UFO: Irene – Irene is going to contact Chelce to see if she would be interested in doing a class on the subject of "Communication from quilter-longarmer-quilter". Irene also reported that everyone should still turn in their UFO's.

Old Business: Janet/Banner – the banner is done, it turned out very good. Marie is going to get pant hangers to hang quilts and the banner. We are also going to look for S hooks.

NEW BUSINESS:

Becky Spies will be doing the library display for the festival quilts, she wanted to know about getting approval to spend some money on supplies to organize the display. A motion was made by Irene and seconded by Debby, the motion was discussed and passed.

Carol Kraft – received a letter from the Hostfest, it is going to cost $450.00 this year to have a booth set up, we discussed getting a bigger booth, but it would cost $600.00 to do this. We voted that we keep it as the same size as last year, we did very good last year. Carol needs the check by May 15. Carol agreed to chair the Hostfest booth again, along with Deb Frost.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Valley Shop Hop moved to May 7-13, 2017

NEXT GUILD MEETING IS MAY 4 at VINCENT at 6:45 pm.

GUILD BOARD MEETING is Thursday, May 18 at 7:00 pm at Vincent Methodist

FESTIVAL BOARD MEETING: Thursday, May 18 at 6:00 pm

Marie Watts, Secretary

May Program and Education: Make sure you bring your UFO projects that you have been working to finish this past month. Chelsea Detert will talk about "communication from quilter-longarmer-quilter".
Thanks, Merry & Irene

April Hostesses/Servers: Hostesses for May are Alex Fairaizl, Michelle Senger, Sally Mosser, Jan Clark, Marie Watts & Bev Cushing. Please call Sue or Pam if you can't serve. Thank you, Sue and Pam

Library: Here are another five books that have been checked out of the library for several years. Please check your books to see if they are hiding among them. Thanks, Debby

#743 Simply Stars, Quilts That Sparkle by Alex Anderson

#801 Christmas with Jinny Beyer by Jinny Beyer

#882 301 Country Christmas Quilt Blocks by Cheri Safiote

#921 A Bird's Eye View by Ruth Ellen Srubas

#928 Willow Creek by Terry Christopherson

Block Of The Month: Border 4 is due for the May meeting. Border 5 will be due in July, see me if you need the handout on Making 4 Flying Geese at Once. If you would like to join the fun and need a pattern please let me know. You can reach me at 978-270-1737. Thank you, Jennifer

Community Service:

We have given away 21 quilts so far this year and have about 12 more ready to give away. Thank you for supporting this important program for our community. We will have some new kits ready for the May meeting as well as quilting and binding opportunities available. The 29th of April please join us at 9:30 in the basement of Vincent United Methodist Church for stuffing dog pillows and also sorting fabric for strip quilts etc. Coffee and lunch will be provided. If you have any questions about the 29th, please give Becky Spies a call.

Pet Beds: As I have taken on more responsibilities in the guild, I no longer have time to take bags of scraps home. There will be empty pillow cases in a box by the door. Please take one home and fill it as you create scraps, remember to cut up large scraps and add batting so they don't get too heavy to launder. Please do not overstuff them, they cannot be washed when too full! Return the full pillows to me at a future meeting or drop off at the Souris Valley Animal Shelter, if you drop them off yourself get me the measurements for our Community Service records. Contact me with any questions britnichase@yahoo.com. Thank you, Britni

Historian: If you have any suggestions of things you would like to see different in future scrapbooks please let me know! You can submit any pictures for the 2017 scrapbook to GuildHistorian@minotquilters.com. Thank you, Britni.

Flea Market: Thanks to all who provided items for sale in the Flea Market at festival. And to all who volunteered to help at the flea market a very big thank you for all your time and help. Without all your work it would not have been as successful as it was. Thank you, Sandy and Debby

New Category!!

Due to the growing interest in modern quilts, we will be adding a category for them at the 2018 Minot Prairie Quilt Festival. Here's our definition of a modern quilt:

Modern quilts highlight the use of bold colors and prints, high contrast and graphic areas of solid color, improvisational piecing, minimalism, geometric shapes, expansive negative space and alternate grid work.

We hope to see lots of quilts in this exciting new category. In order to make way for them, we will be dropping the Garment Category; however, purses and totes may now be entered in the Household Category. Please see the attached listing of all quilt categories for 2018 and start planning now to make our 25th Anniversary our best year ever!

Upcoming Events:

- May 6: 29th Annual Quilt Show in Morden, Manitoba
- May 7-13: Valley Shop Hop; Sunday: 12-4 pm; Mon-Sat: 9 am-5:30 pm; 10 stores from Valley City through the Valley and to Devils Lake in the west. Free pattern & recipe at each shop. For more info, go to rae-bonsewingcenter.com/events.
- June 8-10: 2017 MN Quilt Show, Duluth, MN
- June 21-Sept. 5: ND Row by Row Experience; Theme of "On The Go"; quilts must be completed by October 31 for prizes. NEW in 2017: Row by Row Jr. for kids 6-14 who go with an adult and collect 5 row patterns designed specifically for them. There'll be free patterns and kits. Youth may sew anything using at least one of the row patterns designed by Row by Row.

FYI: April 30th is Hometown Quilting, Rugby, last day. Fabrics are almost 60% off, fixtures and everything is selling. If you mention you saw it on their facebook page, there's an extra discount.

Looking ahead... In planning next year's festival, we are still in need of a teacher chair. Please see Bev Cushing if you are interested.
